

Walk with me

Walk in the footsteps of the real Macbeth. Follow him on a momentous day in August 1040 when he defeated Duncan to realise an ambition to become King of Alba. Listen to Macbeth tell his own story, as opposed to Shakespeare's fictional play, at the following locations:

Location 1. Sueno's Stone, Forres

Sueno's Stone is accessible 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Location 2. Spynie Palace, Pitgaveney

Spynie palace is open Monday to Sunday from 09:30 to 17:30 hrs
Entry fee applicable.

Location 3. Elgin Museum, Elgin

Elgin Museum is open Monday to Friday from 10:00 to 17:00 hrs, and on Saturdays from 11:00 to 16:00 hrs
Entry fee applicable.

On an August day in 1040, Macbeth, Mormaer of Moray, realised his ambition and opened the door to the Kingship of Alba. You can hear the real story at three different places – Sueno's Stone in Forres, Spynie Palace near Pitgaveney and Elgin Museum.

You can join Macbeth's story at any of the three places above, but the journey actually begins at Sueno's Stone.

Walk with Macbeth and share a momentous day for Macbeth, and for Alba.

Location 1, Sueno's Stone, stands on the north-easterly edge of Forres off the A96 (Ordnance Survey Landranger 27 NJ 046 595)

Location 2, Spynie Palace (Pitgaveney) is approximately 13 miles from Sueno's Stone. To drive there take the A96 eastwards to Elgin. As you approach Elgin, turn left on to Morriston Road at the Eight Acres hotel. Follow Morriston Road for 1.2 miles then go left at the junction with the A941 North Street Mews. Continue along the A941 Lossiemouth Road for 1.6 miles then turn right at the signpost for Spynie Palace. There is a car park available. Note that Spynie Palace is in the care of Historic Scotland and there is an admission charge.

Location 3, Elgin Museum, is approximately 3 miles from Spynie Palace. To drive there, leave the Spynie Palace car park and turn left on to the A941 heading towards Elgin. After 2.1 miles, at the roundabout, take the first exit on to the A96/Alexandra Road. Turn left at North College Street. There is parking available here near Elgin Cathedral. Elgin Museum is a short walk back up North College Street and across the A96. Take care when crossing the busy road.
